

I Communicate Like Animals Do

We can squeal really loudly.
The one who is on patrol
warns the other meerkats
of danger by squealing.

I also squeal when I warn my friends about danger... even if it's just something small.

How do you
communicate,
meerkats?

I Communicate Like Animals Do

Lenka Chytilová, Pau Morgan

Ravens give gifts, lions like to snuggle up together and chimpanzees use various facial expressions ... and what about you? Can you see yourself in this behaviour too? Find out which animals communicate like the people do. Don't forget to peep under each flap! And look out for which of these ways of communication you use.
